AREA

The closest beach from Palacio Salomon is Cala Carbo, where you can find loungers, parasols and restaurants.

Cala Carbo is one of Ibiza's most private little beaches. It is a combination of sand and pebbles that shelves gently into clear water. The rocky coastline that extends from the sand is great for kids to scramble over, whilst fishing off the small jetty is a more chill activity. Good mornings are available for private boats.

There are two very popular restaurants offering good food, especially seafood and paella; Chiringuito Playa Cala Carbo and the newer addition La Sardina Loca ('The Crazy Sardine'). They are very popular on Sundays with the locals so you may need to book then.
